

INJURED BRAKEMAN
MAY NOT RECOVER

L. L. Newkirk, Formerly of Seymour,
In Critical Condition as Result of Accident at Orleans.

HAND CRUSHED OFF BY WHEELS

Accident Similar to That Which Occurred to E. M. McMillan Several Weeks Ago.

L. L. Newkirk, a brakeman on the Monon railroad who was seriously and perhaps fatally injured at Orleans Monday afternoon, was formerly employed on the B. & O. S-W out of Seymour and is well known here. When the accident occurred he was attempting to get on his train and stumbled or was jerked under the cars. His left hand was crushed off by the wheels and it is thought he is injured internally. He also sustained a severe wound in the head, and while his condition is not pronounced hopeless, his chances for recovery are slight. He was not missed by the crew until the train reached Mitchell. The injured man was given medical attention at Orleans and his condition has been such that it was not thought advisable to remove him to his home in Bedford.

The accident is very similar to that in which E. M. McMillan, formerly of Seymour, lost his right hand in the Monon yards at Bedford several weeks ago. McMillan was also a brakeman.

Newkirk has been a regular brakeman on Conductor Andy Gardner's train, but Monday was out with Conductor Ashe, for whom McMillan was braking when he lost his hand. The same brakeman, James Shoffner, was called to supply the place of the injured man in both instances.

Newkirk and McMillan were both employed on the B. & O. S-W. about the same time. After leaving the B. & O. service they accepted employment on the Monon line for which company they have been working since that time.

LAST CALL FOR THE
SANTA CLAUS FUND

Final Appeal is Made For Money to be Used For Spreading Christmas Cheer.

THE DOLLAR CHRISTMAS CLUB

Fifty People Are Wanted to Join.—
Membership Fee Is One Dollar.
—Children Helping.

This is the last call for the Christmas Fund. The money which has been turned over to the committee Thursday afternoon, and they will make the purchases which will bring happiness to many little children as well as to many worthy homes in Seymour. As the committee must be given some time to complete the purchases, all the contributions must be reported before noon Thursday.

During the past few days the names of needy and worthy families have been reported and it is desired very much that these families be given an opportunity to enjoy a merry Christmas. There are also a number of children reported whose parents and relatives will be unable to purchase presents for them, and if Santa Claus visits their homes he must be assisted. It would, indeed, be a sad Christmas for these little children to awaken on Christmas morning and find that they had not been visited by their patron saint. A small contribution will mean much happiness to these children, and now is certainly the time to make it. It is a matter which should not be overlooked.

If all the needs are supplied the committee must have at least $100. Are you willing to give a small part of this amount?

Some of the grades of the public schools have become interested in the Christmas Fund, and are responding nobly to the call for assistance. In the report yesterday it was stated that Grade No. 1 of the Shields building had donated $1.00. This should have been $1.25, making the total yesterday $23.50.

The contributions which have been made follow:

A committee representing the various churches is being appointed to take charge of the work. Mrs. C. D. Hopewell is chairman.

Transfer Business Sold.

A. T. Foster has sold his transfer business to Samuel S. Wible, of this city, who is now in charge. However, Mr. Foster will remain with Mr. Wible and assist him till the first of March. The headquarters will remain where it is now, on East Second street, until January 15, when it will be transferred to the interurban station and all calls will be answered from there. Mr. Foster has been engaged in the business since two years ago last May and has done a good business as he is prompt and attentive to business and has the good will and confidence of the people of Seymour generally. He has not announced what he expects to do after March 1st, but will probably remain in this city.

Mr. Wible has been a resident of Seymour and vicinity for the past twelve years and enjoys the fullest confidence of his acquaintances. He owns property here and can be counted upon to do his business carefully and successfully.

On Executive Committee.

At the meeting of the Indiana Hotel Keepers Association at Indianapolis this week, C. E. T. Dobbins, of this city, retired as president. He was elected a member of the executive committee.

ENGINEER PEASE
PAINFULLY HURT

Fell From Moving Freight Train Between Aurora and Cochran
Tuesday Afternoon.

WAS RENDERED UNCONSCIOUS

Brought to His Home in This City
Tuesday Night.—Will Be Laid
Up Some Time.

Pearl Pease, a B. & O. S-W. engineer of this city, was hurt about four o'clock Tuesday afternoon by falling from a fast moving freight near Aurora.

He and his crew had been relieved at Cochran and asked to report for duty in Cincinnati. They missed the passenger train and boarded a freight for Aurora. The train was moving rapidly when he attempted to get on and he happened to catch a ladder that did not extend to the top of the car. He was carrying a heavy suitcase which necessitated his holding to the handle rod with one hand. After going some distance he hand became cold and numb and this with the weight of the suitcase caused him to lose his grip and fall from the train. He was rendered unconscious for a time by the fall. He was found by some one and taken to Aurora and was brought to his home in this city on No. 3.

Though his injuries were very painful they are not dangerous. He was badly bruised and several muscles and leaders were torn loose. The physicians here were unable this morning to make a close examination to determine whether any bones were broken.

He will be laid up for some time. He has been in several minor accidents and a few weeks ago was in a wreck near Cincinnati.

Old Soldiers Resist Movement of Charities Board.

KNIGHTSTOWN ORPHANS' HOME

Suggestion to Have the Indiana Soldiers' and Sailors' Orphans' Home Opened For Other Orphans Dependent Upon State Is Not Looked Upon Favorably by Veterans—Secretary Butler Explains Board's Attitude.

Indianapolis, Dec. 21.—Although the state organization of the Indiana G. A. R. is preparing to defend the Indiana Soldiers' and Sailors' Orphans' Home at Knightstown against any proposed legislation which will take the control of the home from the veterans of the civil war, and especially against any move the board of state charities may make concerning the institution, Amos W. Butler, secretary of the board, declares that whatever fears the veterans may have on that score are needless.

The understanding has spread among the G. A. R. men that the board of charities plans a raid on the Knightstown institution, in order to let down the bars which now keep out of the home all but children of honorably discharged veterans, but this is denied by the board's representative.

The board now exercises such authority over the Knightstown home as it exercises over all other orphanages and similar institutions in the state, a purely advisory power. More than this, Mr. Butler declares, the state board does not ask.

Attendance Falling Off.

The daily average attendance at the Knightstown home has decreased approximately 50 per cent in recent years, and it is contended that there is a great deal of room in the institution which could be utilized for housing dependent children other than children of soldiers, pending the finding of homes, if the law were amended so they could be admitted, even temporarily. It is further suggested that children are kept in the home too long before effort is made to find suitable homes for them. This, it is understood, has long been a source of contention between the board of state charities and the board in control of the Knightstown institution.

A movement has been started among the G. A. R. and the W. R. C. forces to have introduced in the general assembly a bill providing for admission to the home of grandchildren of honorably discharged veterans when they have no means of support. It is expected that opposition will arise against the proposed measure on the ground that such children should be handled as other orphans of the state are handled.

NOTES REMAIN

Retiring Geologist Will Turn Over Fruits of Long Labor.

Indianapolis, Dec. 21.—The demand made by Edward Barrett, state geologist-elect, that Bryce Kinney, state gas supervisor, under supervision of the geologist, shall surrender his commission Jan. 1, when Mr. Barrett assumes office, although Kinney's commission has until March 11 to run, has caused considerable comment among politicians, especially in view of the custom that has prevailed. When W. S. Blatchley, state geologist and a Republican, assumed the office fifteen years ago, he found four Democrats—state gas supervisor, state gas inspector, state mine inspector and state oil inspector, all then under control of the geologist—in the office. All were armed with commissions which did not expire until March 11, following Mr. Blatchley's entrance into the office in November. The Democrats were not disturbed.

Mr. Blatchley said that when he left the office he would turn over to his successor all the field notebooks which were turned into him by the field men during his term of office. It had been understood that these books were the personal property of Mr. Blatchley and that he would retain them, but he said he did not intend to do so.

Gary's City Controller Was Legislated Out of Office.

Gary, Ind., Dec. 21.—The city council, believing that Mayor Thomas E. Knotts may be impeached before the winter is over, gave final reading to the ordinance abolishing the city controllership and passed the measure by a two-thirds vote. As a result of the office filled by T. Joseph Dunning is legislated out of existence. With the controller out of the way the council can name the mayor's successor in case of a vacancy. If the controller were in office he would succeed the mayor.

Washington, Dec. 21.—The wife of a United States senator, Mrs. Nina Gore, testified before the special congressional committee which has been investigating Oklahoma Indian land affairs at the instance of her husband. Mrs. Gore denied that the senator had at any time accepted the proffered aid of Jacob Hamon. The latter previously had testified that he had been requested to obtain a loan of $5,000 for Senator Gore's campaign. Mrs. Gore declared that Mr. Hamon said he would be glad to help finance Senator Gore's fight, but the senator replied that he could manage his own campaign.

PERILS OF THE SEA HERE EXEMPLIFIED

Thrilling Experience of the Crew of the Schooner Doris.

Pensacola, Dec. 21.—The American schooner Doris lies at anchor off Puerto Cortez, Honduras, where she was towed by the United States cruiser Tacoma some days ago, dismasted and her crew shadows of their former selves because of hardships they have undergone. News of the wreck reached here in the shape of a wireless report sent to the owners of the schooners by the first mate, now in command.

The Doris sailed from the port of Belize with a cargo of lumber. When she was not far from the mouth of Yucatan channel, without warning something struck her.

At first her men thought she had run on one of the many reefs thereabouts, but before they could cut the vessel shivered again. The sea, which had been smooth, leaped into great surges and a long gray ridge piled itself upon the horizon and came tearing down on the vessel.

Green water sprang over her rail, gripping her skipper, Captain Gustav Azelson, and dragged him over the side. He was never seen again. The tidal wave was followed by a hurricane that raged for three days and tore spars and rigging from the schooner.

After the gale subsided she drifted about for several days and was finally picked up by the Tacoma.

Still on Trial.

The case of the trustees of the Christian church of Tunnellton against the B. & O. S-W. railroad for damages for the destruction of the church building by fire, which the plaintiffs alleges was the result of a spark from an engine belonging to the defendant, is still on trial. Judge Gardiner and Attorney Tharp of Washington, are representing the B. & O. company and Tom Brooks, of Bedford and John Edwards of Mitchell, are the attorneys for the plaintiff. The decision in the case will probably not be given until sometime Thursday.

DIVORCES GRANTED

Three Parties Given Decrees in Circuit Court.

Three divorces were heard in the Jackson circuit court Tuesday, and decrees were granted to the plaintiff in each case. None of the defendants appeared at the trials. In the case of William E. Akers against his wife, Lottie Akers, the plaintiff testified that the defendant would fight and quarrel with him every time he came home. He testified that at one time she struck at him with a chair and that upon another occasion she hit him with her fist and broke his thumb. The judge decided that under the circumstances the plaintiff should be given a divorce decree. E. P. Elsner was the attorney for the plaintiff.

A divorce was also granted Charles W. Clark from his wife Ollie Clark. The charge was abandonment for a period of two years. F. W. Wesner appeared for the plaintiff.

Bert Clen, as plaintiff, was given a divorce from his wife, Florence Clen, upon the charge of cruel treatment. Henry Price represented the plaintiff.

ANOTHER GUESS

On Possible Location of Population Center.

Speaking of the center of population a Washington dispatch says: So far the bureau of the census has not attempted to establish the center of population. That it will remain in Indiana is foregone conclusion. Some rough calculations made by the bureau show that during the last decade the states east of Indiana made a total gain of 7,224,860, or almost half the total gain of the country, which was 15,977,691. This gain does not take into account the gains in Michigan, Indiana, Kentucky, Tennessee and Alabama, amounting to almost a million and a half. On the basis of this showing the census officials are inclined to believe that the center of population will be located a little east of the present spot in Bartholomew county, and possibly a little south.

Division Agents Let Out.

Announcement has been made that all division agents on the B. & O. Southwestern have been let out, temporarily at least. This affects the Ohio, Indiana and Illinois divisions. It has formerly been the duty of the division agents to act as sort of supervisors over all the local agents along the line. It is believed that this move is the first to be made by the B. & O. Southwestern in cutting down all expenses which are not absolutely necessary. It is stated at the Chillicothe, O., offices, however, that the change will only be effective temporarily, and that the place will be again created in the course of a few months.

New Shops.

The B. & O. officials have about decided to build $2,000,000 repair shops at Newark, Ohio, to be utilized in making car and engine repairs for the western divisions.

Miss Leona Greer went to Indianapolis this morning to attend a teachers' meeting.

WOMEN'S WOES.

Seymour Women Are Finding Relief At Last.

It does seem that women have more than a fair share of the aches and pains that afflict humanity; they must "keep up," must attend to duties in spite or constantly aching backs, or headaches, dizzy spells, bearing-down pains; they must stoop over, when to stoop means torture. They must walk and bend and work with aching pains and many aches from kidney ills. Kidneys cause more suffering than any other organ of the body. Keep the kidneys well and health is easily maintained. Read of a remedy for kidneys only that helps and cures the kidneys and is endorsed by people you know.

Mrs. Edward Utterback, 305 S. Poplar street, Seymour, Ind., says: "About five years my back was lame and sore and no words can fully describe the misery I endured. I could not attend to my work and I was unable to remain on my feet for any length of time. Seeing Doan's Kidney Pills highly recommended in the local papers, I began their use and the results were most satisfactory. I was completely cured and at the present time I have no need of a kidney medicine whatever."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster—Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

LINCOLN DIXON

Given Choice of Honors by Indiana Delegation.

Congressman Lincoln Dixon is to have choice of honors coming to the Indiana representatives. The delegation held a meeting in Washington Tuesday and decided that Dixon having served longer than any of the other Indiana Democrats, shall be allowed to express first preference for committee assignments.

It is conceded that the state may have a place on the Ways and Means committee and Dixon can have it if he desires. He is undecided yet as to what he will ask for.

He is now a member of the Committee on Rules and the Committee on Invalid Pensions and if he stays off of the Ways and Means he can go to the head of the Committee on Invalid Pensions. All of the Indiana representatives are anxious that he shall accept the chairmanship of the Committee on Invalid Pensions, as he would then be in a position to help the Indiana members get their pension bills through.

Engraved cards make a Christmas present that is always appreciated. We can supply you with more than a dozen styles of letter,—enough to please every taste. Order early before the Christmas rush comes on.

TURNED IN

A Yankee Soldier's Christmas In the Confederacy.

By FREDERICK B. WINSTON

Copyright, 1910, by American Press Association.

On the 23d of December, 1864, a car-load of Federal prisoners of war were being taken south from Richmond in a box car, the object being to get them away from Grant's approaching army. One of the boys had stolen a case knife and another had picked up a part of a rusty file. With the file they made a saw of the knife and managed to cut away enough of the flooring of the car to let a man through. During the night while the car was stationary Tom Atherton and another prisoner named Murdock dropped through this hole and attempted to escape. Murdock was shot, but Tom got away.

The next afternoon Tom was hiding in a wood near a North Carolina plantation. It was a pine wood with an undergrowth of evergreens. Tom, overcome with exhaustion, had gone to sleep among the undergrowth. He was awakened by a shriek. Sitting up, he saw standing before him a girl who had evidently been much frightened. Under one arm she held a bundle of evergreens and in her right hand a knife. Tom arose, hatless, almost coatless and minus the seat and knees of his trousers. His toes protruded from one shoe, while the other was gone entirely.

"I surrender," he said, throwing up his hands.

"Goodness gracious!" was the girl's only response.

"What are you going to do with me?" asked Tom.

"Do with you?"

"Yes. Being unarmed, I'm at your mercy, you having that cold steel in your hand."

"Who are you?"

"A Yank escaped from prison. I'm played out. Nothing to eat for two days, cold and not enough clothing to keep me warm. I might as well surrender to you as any one. What are you doing out here with that knife and those evergreens?"

"Cutting evergreens for Christmas."

"Christmas?"

"Yes. Don't you know that tomorrow will be Christmas?"

"I don't even know what month it is."

"Isn't that awful?"

"I wonder if mother and Mollie and Sue are decorating at home," said Tom musingly. "I suppose you're a rebel girl."

"Of course I am."

"Well, then, you might as well turn me in at once. I couldn't have gone through another night in this wood. I'd be starved by morning."

"All right. Come with me."

The girl pointed the way and, falling in behind Tom, marched him to her home. It was growing dark when they entered a large plantation house, and those within were just lighting the lamps.

"Go in there," said the girl, opening the door of a room, "and stay there till I turn you in."

Tom remained alone for awhile, when she came in again and said, "Come."

"Are you going to turn me in?" he asked.

"Yes."

She led Tom upstairs and turned him into a room in the center of which was a tub of water. On a chair was a suit of clothes, including a pair of shoes.

"You call this turning me in?" said Tom.

"Yes—for the present."

Tom bathed, put on the clothes, which fitted him tolerably, and went downstairs. The girl was waiting for him in the hall.

"Well," he said, "I'm ready to be turned in now. I shall give you the credit for my capture."

"Thank you. Go in there."

She pointed to an open door, and Tom half expected to find some one beyond it with a musket waiting for him. He was much pleased to see a table with eatables on it.

"Well, now," he said, smiling all over, "this is being 'turned in' in a way I like."

Unfortunately for Tom there were few good things to eat in the south at the time, but he got the best there was in the house. The girl waited on him and when he had finished the meal said to him:

"Tomorrow will be Christmas. Father is fighting your people at Petersburg, mother is ill, and I'm going to make as much of Christmas as possible for the children. I wish you to help me, even if you are a Yankee. It will be time enough to turn you in after Christmas is over."

Considering the paucity of the resources at hand, Tom Atherton passed the most enjoyable Christmas of his life. After it was all over the girl said to him, evidently with much reluctance:

"Well, as a true Confederate girl I suppose it's my duty to turn you in now."

"All right," said the prisoner. "I'll make no resistance."

But Tom remained on the plantation for months. One day a man on horseback dashed by the house, shouting: "Petersburg's gone up."

"That ends your Confederacy," said Tom. And it did.

The next Christmas after that Tom's father turned the Confederate girl into a brown stone dwelling house, a bridal and Christmas gift to his son's wife.

Every Christmas she tells this story to her grandchildren.

ST. PAUL'S CROSS RE-ERECTED

Old London Shaft Removed by Long Parliament of 1643.

After 267 years London has once more its Paul's cross, which Americans will note when visiting St. Paul's cathedral. For centuries an old cross of stone, Paul's cross, stood in the north east corner of the little patch of green known as St. Paul's churchyard. It traced its origin to a law made by the Emperor Justinian, who decreed "that none shall presume to erect a church until the bishop shall come and consecrate the place to God by prayer and erect the symbol of our salvation, a venerable and truly precious rood." In accordance with this decree there stood once in every churchyard a tall cross.

The old cross has seen English history in the making. The pope's bulls were once promulgated from it. There, too, at the reformation the authority of the popes was denounced. Luther's Bible was burned at Paul's cross, and there the Bible of Miles Coverdale was sent among the people. There Latimer thundered against the vices of London; there also a woman of high position did penance in a white sheet for her offenses, and there a great man in London was publicly excommunicated for his sins.

The old cross was removed by order of the long parliament in 1643, and it is now re-erected in a more imposing style, a devout churchman having bequeathed $25,000 for it. It was unveiled by the bishop of London. The design and ornamental work are by two well known associates of the Royal academy. The new Paul's cross stands fifty-two feet high, and the figure of St. Paul on the top is nine feet tall.

Do You Get Up With a Lame Back?

Kidney Trouble Makes You Miserable.

Almost everyone knows of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder remedy, because of its remarkable health restoring properties. Swamp-Root fulfills almost every wish in overcoming rheumatism, pain in the back, kidneys, liver, bladder and every part of the urinary passage. It corrects inability to hold water, and scalding pain in passing it, or bad effects following use of liquor, wine or beer, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often through the day, and to get up many times during the night.

Swamp-Root is not recommended for everything but if you have kidney, liver or bladder trouble, it will be found just the remedy you need. It has been thoroughly tested in private practice, and has proved so successful that a special arrangement has been made by which all readers of this paper, who have not already tried it, may have a sample bottle sent free by mail, also a book telling more about Swamp-Root, and how to find out if you have kidney or bladder trouble. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper and send your address to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Home of Swamp-Root, Binghamton, N. Y. The regular fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles are sold by all druggists. Don't make any mistake but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

A RELIEF TRAIN WAS AMBUSHED

Rebels Prove Too Cunning For Mexican Troops.

SOLDIERS WERE OVERCOME

At Mal Paso the Troop Train Found Track Torn Up and the Sides of the Pass Lined With Insurrectos, Who Poured a Merciless Fire Into the Soldiers—Federals Unable to Make Headway in Rebellious State.

El Paso, Tex., Dec. 21.—An utter failure was the Mexican government's effort to commandeer a railroad and send reinforcements into the disturbed region of western Chihuahua. The first train sent out with troops aboard was attacked and returned hauling twenty-one dead and forty-two wounded, including Colonel Guzman, the commander. Although they carried mountain guns with them, the troops were unable to use them. They were ambushed and riddled by a fire of the rebels from all sides. The ambushade took place in a pass, Mal Paso, and the rebels simply tore up the track in front of the train and began a merciless fire into the troops when they came to a halt in the pass. The rebels were behind rocks and temporary breastworks on the two sides of the pass. The federal troops poured out of the cars and stood their ground for five hours, but had to retire. This was reported by Mexican officials as a victory, but when the train returned to Chihuahua with forty-two wounded on it, admission was made that the train ran into an ambushade and General Hernandez declared that no further efforts would be made to send reinforcements by train. The wounded victims readily told their story of the trap into which they ran.

Navarro Cooped Up.

The reinforcements were making an effort to reach General Navarro at Pedernales, who has been fighting since last Sunday with only occasional respite. The federal officers had hoped by sheer weight of numbers to force their way through the rebel-infested country and then guard the track after getting it open, in which event they could easily have moved all the reinforcements to the front that they needed. Now, however, they have demonstrated that they cannot do it, and the rebels are greatly encouraged. The rebels are between General Navarro's army at Pedernales and the reinforcement base, also his base of supplies, and with the whole country in sympathy with the insurrectos, much concern is felt for the general and his command, as there has been no sleep for them since the drawn battle at Cerro Prieto a week ago last Sunday and they are out of supplies. The insurgents have harassed them almost every hour and they are said to be in a pitiable state. The relief expedition sent out several days after Navarro left Chihuahua has not been heard from.

The revolt is not viewed as a danger to the nation of Mexico as yet. It is looked upon more as a local uprising. Chihuahua has always been a rebellious state, and many incipient rebellions have been put down in the past twenty years, but the fact that Mexico is not able to put down the trouble, it is believed by many, will lead to a further organization in other states, which is just what the rebels are counting on. They say if they can hold out long enough to encourage other states, that Diaz will have to surrender.

BRITISH ELECTIONS

After Weeks of Voting Little Change Was Effected.

London, Dec. 21.—The election returns are now complete. The final state of the parties is: Unionists, 272; Liberals, 272; Laborites, 42; Nationalists, 74; Independent Nationalists, 10; net coalition gain, 1; coalition majority, 126. The total number of votes cast was 5,229,071, distributed as follows: Unionists, 2,415,280; Liberals, 2,293,894; Laborites, 382,158; Redmondites, 95,426; O'Brienites, 39,470; miscellaneous, 2,843.

The composition of the last parliament was: Liberals, 275; Unionists, 273; Laborites, 40; Nationalists, 71, and Independent Nationalists, 11.

KIDNAPPERS' QUEEN CONVICTED BY JURY

Marie Rappa Faces Possible Sentence of Fifty Years.

New York, Dec. 21.—Alleged queen of the kidnapping band which was rounded up in a raid on the headquarters of the "kidnappers' trust" at 330 East Sixty-third street, Marie Rappa, was found guilty and was remanded to jail by Judge Fawcett for sentence on Dec. 27. The maximum penalty is fifty years, the minimum is five.

Judge Fawcett said that the verdict would be far-reaching in its effects and that it was the severest blow dealt the Black Hand since he had been on the bench. The jury was out fifteen minutes.

Mrs. Rappa admitted that Joseph Longo, with whose abduction she is charged, had been in her home. She claimed, however, that she was a tool of her husband and did not know the child had been stolen.

"My husband brought the boy to me," she testified, "and told me that he was the son of a friend of his. This man was going away and my husband said he was being paid $2 a week to keep the boy."

In opening the trial District Attorney Clarke, who conducted the prosecution in person, described the Rappa woman as the "queen of the kidnappers," and declared that she, with a man who is now being sought by the police, was the "brains of the gang."

"This woman," he said, "was the prime cog in the great kidnapping wheel. Without her brains the gang could not have existed. She attended to all the minor details and saw that the kidnapped children, once in the power of the gang, were well guarded. She is undoubtedly the queen of one of the worst gangs of kidnappers known in criminal history in this country."

Released on Bail.

Chicago, Dec. 21.—Judge W. H. Seaman issued a writ of supersedeas for Mrs. Aileen Christopher, the government's chief witness against the brick trust, who was serving a thirty-day sentence in the county jail for contempt of court. Her bond was fixed at $1,000 and she was released.

Entirely Without Foundation.

San Salvador, Dec. 21.—The report emanating from Port Limon, Costa Rica, that as a result of a terrific earthquake an island in the Ilopango lagoon, in the interior of Salvador, had disappeared, causing the drowning of many women and children, is entirely without foundation.

DIED.

BUTTORFF.—Sarah Buttorff was born in Washington county, July 12, 1832; died December 15, 1910, at her home near here, of a complication of diseases, aged 78 years, 3 months and 3 days.

Her father moved to the old homestead in her childhood days and she was married to George W. Buttorff September 4, 1855, who preceded her to the grave, he having died December 14, 1896.

To this union were born seven daughters and two sons, four daughters and one son having preceded her to the grave. She leaves a son, John, of Bedford, who, with his family, attended the funeral, and three daughters, Mrs. Adaline Fish, Mrs. Amanda Norman and Margaret Etta, to mourn her loss.

She united with the Clearspring Baptist church in early life and remained a faithful member until her death. She was a consecrated Christian and a devoted mother. She had no fear of death and spoke of it as going home. All she regretted was to have to leave behind those who were near and dear to her.

The funeral was held Saturday, conducted by Rev. Cummings. A large number of friends were at the funeral and all the children were present.

ROBERTA DE JANON

Young Girl Comes in For Grandfather's Millions.

ROBERTA DE JANON IS LEFT WELL PROVIDED

Bulk of Grandfather's Millions
For Young Girl.

Philadelphia, Dec. 20.—Miss Roberta Puist De Janon will inherit in trust the bulk of the $10,000,000 left by her grandfather, Robert Puist, the wealthy seed merchant, who died last week at the Bellevue Stratford hotel, whose will has just been probated. After providing for the payment of debts and a few small bequests, the will states that "all the residue of my estate is left to Harry C. Stahler and the Fidelity Trust company trustees, in trust, the net income to go to my granddaughter, Roberta Puist De Janon, for the term of her natural life; then the residuary estate to go to the lawful child or children of my said granddaughter living at the time of her death and to the lawful issue of such children."

Miss De Janon created a sensation several months ago by running away from the Bellevue Stratford, where she lived with her grandfather, with a middle-aged waiter, who had a wife.

Too Much For Girl Bride.

Atlanta, Ga., Dec. 20.—Because the stone in a "diamond" ring which her husband gave her on the eve of marriage proved to be only glass, Mrs. Georgia Lou Miller, the seventeen-year-old wife of Frank Max Miller, has filed suit for divorce.

NEW YORK SHAKEN BY AN EXPLOSION OF GAS

Nine Persons Killed and Nearly a Hundred Injured.

New York, Dec. 20.—By an explosion of Pintsch gas, used for lighting railroad cars, which demolished the transformer house of the New York Central's power station at Lexington avenue and Fifth street, wrecked the interiors of buildings in the neighborhood and shook the city for half a mile around as though by earthquake shock, ten persons were killed and nearly a hundred were injured. A trolley car which was passing the power station at the time of the explosion was blown from the tracks and several of its passengers were killed. The whirlwind of concussion broke every pane of glass in the buildings within two blocks of the explosion, tore the sashes from the casements and tossed the inmates about amid the wreck of the furnishings. Scarcely a pane of glass or a window sash was left intact along Lexington avenue from Forty-sixth street to Fifty-second street, and in the side streets as far east as Third avenue. To the west the force of the explosion, which seemed to cover a fan-like area to the east, was less felt, although Archbishop Farley's residence at Madison avenue and Fifth street was shaken enough to break some of the windows.

Nothing like an accurate estimate of the damage done by the explosion has yet been made. One guess placed it at over $1,000,000.

To Revive Glover Case.

Boston, Dec. 20.—According to District Attorney Higgins, a woman has been indicted by the Middlesex county grand jury, charged with being an accessory before the fact in the murder of Clarence F. Glover, the Waltham laundryman, of which charge Hattie LeBlanc was last week acquitted.

John D. Withdraws Support
From Pet School.

PARTING GIFT OF $10,000,000

In Giving His Customary Christmas Present to University of Chicago Mr. Rockefeller Severed His Official Relations With Institution to Which He Has Given, Since He Founded It in 1889, $35,000,000.

Chicago, Dec. 21.—John D. Rockefeller has given the University of Chicago another $10,000,000. His total gifts to this institution in twenty-one years aggregate $35,000,000.

With the announcement of this latest gift Mr. Rockefeller severed his official relations with the institution. The great school is to get no further support from the oil king. Announcement of the gift and the withdrawal of Mr. Rockefeller from any control of the university was made by Martin A. Ryerson, president of the board of trustees, at the seventy-seventh convocation of the University of Chicago. The donation consists of income-bearing securities of the "present market value of $10,000,000," set aside from the funds of the general educational board, Mr. Rockefeller's $53,000,000 educational foundation. The sum is to be delivered in ten equal annual installments, beginning Jan. 1, 1911.

By the terms of the letter written by Mr. Rockefeller to President Judson and the university trustees and read by Mr. Ryerson, the founder withdraws from the board of trustees his personal representative, Fred T. Gates and John D. Rockefeller, Jr. He mentions the gift as single and final. His withdrawal has never been considered a possibility, and many of the faculty members said they were amazed at the action. The university, as the result of Mr. Rockefeller's announcement, is free to use the $35,000,000 property as it desires.

MURDERED THREE

Negro in North Carolina Confessed
When Captured.

Raleigh, N. C., Dec. 21.—Nathan Montague, a negro, committed three capital crimes, either one of which is enough to secure a sentence of death in North Carolina. After assaulting J. L. Sanders, an old farmer, and a granddaughter, he attacked another daughter of Sanders, Miss Mary Sanders, murdered the girl and then set fire to the dwelling, after killing the old farmer, already unconscious from blows. The little grandchild was burned alive in the house.

Officers traced Montague and when caught he had blood and hair on his coat. He broke down and confessed. He is in jail at Durham.

Mexican Government Declares Air
Guns to Be Contraband.

St. Louis, Dec. 21.—The Mexican government is splitting hairs in its efforts to put down the revolution. An air rifle manufacturing company of this city has received word that its shipments of air rifles consigned to various points in Mexico for the holiday trade had been held up at the border and declared to be contraband. The Mexican consul in St. Louis and the United States government officials at the border will be applied to in efforts to have the air rifles declared toys and not man-killers in disguise.

A Costly Christmas Present.

Washington, Dec. 21.—Finishing touches are being put on the $1,000,000 mansion which Mrs. Franklin MacVeagh has caused to be built at the capital. Mrs. MacVeagh had planned to have the great house built without her husband's knowledge as a "surprise" gift for him. But the secret leaked out, and now everybody in Washington knows that the secretary will receive one of the most expensive Christmas gifts in the world.

Fighter Bursts Into Tears.

Cardiff, Dec. 21.—Fred Welsh and Jem Driscoll met here last night in a twenty-round match for £100 a side and a purse of £2,500. Driscoll was disqualified in the tenth round for butting. When he heard the decision he burst into tears.

GEN. WOOD IN NEED OF COURT MARTIAL

So Says Rogers, Sitting at
No. 26 Broadway.

New York, Dec. 21.—H. H. Rogers, at his office, No. 26 Broadway, gave out an interview concerning the controversy between General Wood and President Taft. Mr. Rogers said: "If General Wood is wrong, he has committed the most serious offense an officer can in times of peace, and that is, submit a false report. Does it not therefore become Mr. Taft's absolute duty as commander-in-chief of the United States army, to prefer charges against General Wood and have him courtmartialled? Either one or the other of these gentlemen is right."

POSTAL REVENUES

In the Last Fiscal Year They Increased
10 Per Cent.

Washington, Dec. 21.—According to the annual report of the first assistant postmaster general, the number of postoffices in the country on June 30, 1910, was 59,580 and the gross postal revenues for the last fiscal year amounted to $224,128,657, an increase of $20,566,274, or 10 per cent over the preceding year. The expenditures of the department were $229,977,224, an increase of $8,973,121, or 4 per cent, the deficit being $5,848,566 as compared with $17,441,719 for the preceding year.

The first assistant repeats his recommendations made in previous reports that thirty days leave of absence with pay be allowed postoffice clerks and city letter carriers instead of the fifteen days now allowed.

IN A DEADLOCK

Railway Managers and Engineers
Both Refuse to Budge.

Chicago, Dec. 21.—Fear of a general strike of locomotive engineers has increased as the result of the failure of Labor Commissioner Neill's efforts to obtain a settlement of the wage problem now confronting the western railroad managers and their employees. Repeated meetings and arguments of Mr. Neill with representatives of both sides have been of no avail. Both interests refused to yield a point, and the situation is becoming tense, it is said. It is expected the meetings will be continued for several days, but little hope is entertained by either side of the settling of the differences through federal mediation.

Champ Clark's Program.

Indianapolis, Dec. 21.—Representative Korbly has arrived home to prepare for Champ Clark, prospective speaker of the next house, who will come tomorrow to deliver an address at a reception to be given in his honor by the Indiana Democratic club. On the following day Mr. Clark will address the Indiana Teachers' association. While in Indianapolis Mr. Clark will be entertained at the home of Representative Korbly. He will return to Washington to spend Christmas with his family.

Hollander Brought Back.

New York, Dec. 21.—Captured in Italy after a long pursuit, Alexander Hollander, a customs broker, has been brought back to New York and will be arraigned on charges of forgery and fraud, having been indicted last January. He is accused of altering consular certificates on certain imports, thereby making large profits by pocketing the difference of the actual and fraudulent prices of the goods.

Mexican Bandits Captured.

Puebla, Mexico, Dec. 21.—The local authorities have been notified of the murder of Manuel Vargas, a wealthy land owner of Acojeto, by bandits. The bandits then bound the women and servants and robbed the house of $3,000 in cash. Rurales went in pursuit of the brigands and captured six members of the band.

The Famous Rayo

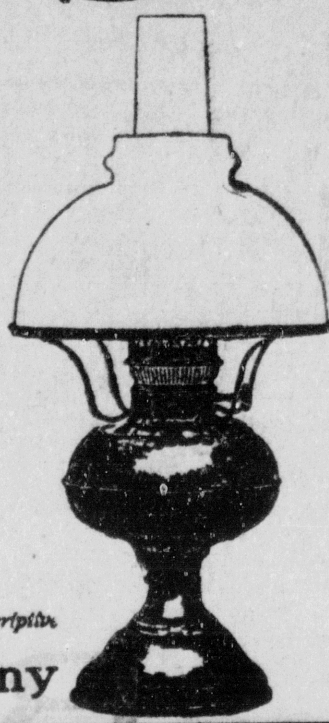

Is the Lamp of Real Beauty

because it gives the best light of all lamps. The Rayo gives a white, soft, mellow, diffused light—easy on the eye because it cannot flicker. You can use your eyes as long as you wish under the Rayo light without strain.

The Rayo Lamp is low-priced, and even though you pay $5, $10 or $20 for other lamps, you may get more expensive decorations but you cannot get a better light than the low-priced Rayo gives. A strong, durable shade-holder holds the shade on firm and true. This season's new burner adds strength and appearance.

Chinese National Assembly Dares to Criticise the Throne.

Pekin, Dec. 20.—The national assembly again demonstrated its determination to hasten the establishment of popular government. It debated the throne's edict rejecting the assembly's proposal to substitute a responsible cabinet for the grand council, and after a long but temperate discussion, during which the speakers for the first time criticised the regent, nominated a committee to frame the impeachment of the councillors and to declare the assembly's intention to dissolve if the council is not made responsible to the nation.

Beware of Ointments for Catarrh that Contain Mercury,

as mercury will surely destroy the sense of smell and completely derange the whole system when entering it through the mucous surfaces. Such articles should never be used except on prescription from reputable physicians, as the damage they will do is ten fold to the good you can possibly derive from them. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O., contains no mercury, and is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. In buying Hall's Catarrh Cure be sure you get the genuine. It is taken internally and made in Toledo, Ohio, by F. J. Cheney & Co. Testimonials free.

A PENITENT

A Burglar Is Brought Back to the Fold on Christmas Morn.

By EMMA EDMONDS

Copyright, 1910, by American Press Association.

Mike Conover, burglar, the day before Christmas stood on a sidewalk in a great city and watched the shoppers. On the other side of the street was a large jewelry store, in and out of which throngs of people were going and coming, many of them carrying the goods they had bought rather than risk not getting them before Christmas morning if left to be sent home by the delivery wagon.

Mike was watching for some prosperous looking person to come out of the store, his pockets bulging with small packages—he knew the small ones to be the most valuable—intending to follow him home and during the night relieve him of them. Presently he hit upon an elderly gentleman with mutton chop whiskers and a gold headed cane, who, as he emerged from the store, was cramming the said small packages down into his pocket. Mike followed him, noted the house he entered and went away.

The town clocks were striking one hour after midnight when the burglar bent his steps to the house in question, passed from the front steps on to a balcony, inserted a jimmy under a window sash, pulled out the screws that held the sash, raised it and entered a large drawing room. The Christmas presents were doubtless kept above, so, feeling his way upstairs, he found a hall lighted by a gas jet turned very low. He turned it a trifle higher in order the better to see the way and, looking into an open door, saw two little children asleep with their arms about each other. To the mantel hung two long stockings bulging in every part. On a bureau was a crucifix.

Mike had been brought up a Catholic by an honest, hardworking mother and remembered when a lad quite well grown seeing his little brother and sister, both less than five years old, lying in bed together in this fashion. He remembered it especially because he had just come in with some toys to put into their stockings. The sight took him back to those days when he had not yet gone to the bad, and there came a sinking about his heart. He passed back through a narrow hallway and, opening a door, entered a portion of the house that seemed to be an addition and cut off from the rest. The door had scarcely closed behind him when he heard a low voice say:

"Dominus vobiscum."

Mike started, and his knees trembled beneath him. Whence came the voice—from the ceiling, from under the floor or from behind curtains? It had been years since Mike had gone to mass, much less to confession, and now it seemed to him that he was in a church; that the priest had turned from the altar to the congregation and, spreading his arms in an attitude to bless them, had intoned the Latin words meaning "The Lord be with you."

Instinctively Mike bowed his head and made the sign of the cross on his forehead.

Then suddenly a woman's voice began to sing that beautiful hymn "Ave Sanctissima" ("Hail, Most Holy Mother"). From the moment Mike heard the first note he began to droop. Gradually he bent almost to the floor, and when the words "Ora pro nobis" ("Pray for us") were sung he sank upon his knees. When the song stopped the penitent was sobbing like a child.

Suddenly a light was turned on behind him. But Mike remained on his knees. He was too overcome by the music to make any resistance.

"What are you doing here?" asked the gentleman Mike had shadowed that day.

"I came to rob you, sir," Mike replied in a hoarse whisper, "but I have been turned from my purpose, first, by your two little children with their hanging stockings and, second, by what I have heard here. Am I dreaming that I am in a church? Is this a dwelling, or have I gone mad?"

"Neither. We are Roman Catholics here, and I have purchased a phonograph as a Christmas present for my wife, who is a very devout woman. It is intended for such, I left it wound, and I suppose something has gone wrong with the machinery and started it up. I heard the singing and came in to shut the thing off."

Then Mike rose from his knees, but with his head still bowed said:

"I am ready, sir, to go to jail and suffer the punishment I deserve. But never again will I commit a crime. The influence of our holy church and my old mother when I was a boy has been brought back to me tonight to save me from sinking any lower. I am armed, sir, and could kill you in a moment. But fear nothing. Go to your telephone, if you have one in the house, and call the police."

The gentleman stood looking at Mike for some moments without speaking, then said:

"I shall not telephone for the police. The police represent the law. Our church has done what the law can never do. The law can only punish; the church has brought a sinner to repentance. Go your way, and tomorrow, if you will call at my place of business, I will give you work."

Mike is now earning an honest living and hangs stockings for his own children on Christmas eve. But he is never comfortable in presence of a phonograph. Somehow it connects him with a past that distresses him and which he wishes to forget.

TRAINS DELAYED BY COLD WEATHER

Railroads Experience Some Trouble
In Making Schedule Because of Winter.

GENERAL RAILROAD NEWS

Materials Arrive For the Construction of the Big Water Tank in
B. & O. S-W. Yards.

The trains on B. & O. S-W. were late this morning on account of the cold weather. No. 4 due here at 9:08 did not arrive here until afternoon and No. 7 westbound was over an hour late. The trains on the Pennsylvania were also delayed.

The B. & O. is still hiring new firemen and this morning the following men were given positions with the company: Earl C. Bergman, of Grammar, Henry Sutherland, of Seymour, Clyde Hines, of Holton, Thomas J. Powell, Underwood, C. C. Fleishman, of Roanoke, Va.

A. B. Thompson has resigned his position as engineer on the B. & O. S-W. and returned to Duluth, Minn. He came here several weeks ago from Duluth & Iron Mountain railroad and intended to remain until March 1.

George McGinnis, an engineer on the Southern Indiana railroad, has resigned his position to accept a similar place with the B. & O. S-W.

A Pennsylvania car was derailed on the Southern Indiana switch track 4 o'clock Tuesday afternoon, and the wrecking crew from Columbus was called and worked until late in the night getting the car back on the rails. The car was derailed while a freight crew was switching.

South bound train No. 24 on the Pennsylvania lines was delayed here about thirty minutes this morning on account of frozen heating pipes. The train is heated by hot water, but for some reason the water failed to circulate through the heaters and the water froze in the pipes under the cars. The crew was unable to melt the ice in all the pipes before the train left the city.

Most of the materials for the new water tank which is to be erected in the B. & O. S-W. yards have arrived, and the workmen will begin the construction of the tank as soon as the weather will permit. The concrete foundation was constructed some time ago. The new tank will have a capacity of fifty thousand gallons, and will be one of the largest on this division. The smaller tank will remain and will be used as a supply tank. It was necessary to erect the larger tank because of the large supply of water which is carried by the new type of engines which have been in use on this division for several months.

Thomas Plunkett, roadmaster on the Pennsylvania lines, was in the city today for a short time. He returned to Columbus this morning.

Engineer Harvey Wilson, who was injured by falling from his engine in the yards here Monday evening, has improved sufficiently to return to his home in Jeffersonville. He will be unable to take charge of his engine for some time.
